2019-20 School Theme "Lives without Limits"
Sunday, March 14, 2020

Dear Parents,

Thank you for being patient while the process of how we are going to achieve teaching remotely is being formed. Here is the latest information that you need to be av

There is a section of the "Questions and Answers" link that is also included. Please read through the entire email, including the Q&A link.

Please be aware of the following information:

1. We will be training teachers on Monday and Tuesday so they are prepared to teach Online starting Wednesday.

2. Communication with Students
By the end of the day on Tuesday, teachers should communicate with their students to let them know what the plan will be for their class.

3. UHSAA and Extra-Curricular Activities and Practices are Cancelled
We are treating this like a moratorium. Coaches should not have any interaction with their players for the next two weeks starting Monday.

4. Banquets for Winter Sports and Activities are Cancelled
Banquets that were scheduled for the next two weeks are canceled. At that time we will reassess the situation and will determine if things can be rescheduled.

5. Schools Open Regular School Hours. Although classes are not in session, school buildings will be open during regular school hours for the next two weeks. The m might need over the next two weeks that have been left in their lockers, musical instruments, equipment, etc.

6. Chromebooks will be available for those who need one. Please see the Q & A with specifics.

7. Questions and Answers Link:

 I will try to answer your questions as fast as I can. If your question is not on this list, email me and I will update the Q &A's when I have an answer.

8. Continue to visit alpineschools.org for the latest district-wide information.

We can do this! Thank you so much for all kind emails, questions, and support.

Sincerely,

Courtney Johnson
