

The beauty of web-based registration is that you can choose the classes you like. Class Changes will become almost non-existent.

We understand on rare occasions circumstances do arise where class changes are needed. Should you need to change a class this will be possible through a Parent – Counselor – Student Meeting. These changes are possible depending upon the availability of seats in any given class.