Veteran's Day

by Ashley Merrell

Veterans day goes all the way back to 1918, when they signed the papers to end World War 1. Now we celebrate this day to show respect for those who have served our country; the men and women who have risked and sacrificed their lives to something greater than themselves. I encourage you to step back and think about all they have done for us. Because of those men and women, we are free and we are able to live on this gorgeous land.

They are constantly helping those in need, and even children look up to them as heroes. They ARE our heroes. We honor our veterans on this day each year, but really we should honor them every day. Because after all they have done for us and our country, they deserve a bit of recognition.

Thanksgiving

By: Becca Crabtree

It's about time to spend the holidays with your family, eat some food, and share your great family traditions. Everyone has different Thanksgiving Day traditions, but eating and telling everyone what you are thankful for are the two main ones! For me, spending time with my family in pajamas all day, all cooking dinner together and watching the Thanksgiving Day parade on T.V. are some of the family traditions I enjoy most.

If you don't know what your Thanksgiving traditions are, maybe it is time you ask your parents and start some new ones of your own, or you can just sit back and enjoy some yummy food like the rest of us! Happy Thanksgiving everyone!
